

Bob - VE3UBM

Ernie - VE3VBJ

Members of the Peel Amateur Radio club participate in June in a Field Day at White Spruce Park along with other amateur radio clubs around the world. The club, which has over 100 members, helps local residents obtain their radio licences and is also prepared to assist in emergency situations. The club meets the first Tuesday of each month at Chinguacousy Secondary School.