

The Peel and Mississauga Amateur Radio Clubs hosted their annual fair HAMEX 2002 last weekend at the Brampton Fairgrounds. The event featured amateur radio equipment manufacturers, major commercial vendors, new and used equipment and parts, examinations, seminars, and demonstrations. Here, a volunteers sets up an arial, aiming it at a satellite 22,000 km out in space.

Photo by George Beshiri